A listed entity should: (a) undertake appropriate checks before appointing a director or senior executive or putting someone forward for election as a director; and (b) provide security holders with all material information in its possession relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a director		material information in its possession relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a director. The Company gives shareholders all material information in its possession relevant to the decision whether or not to elect or re-elect a Director, either in the notice of meeting and explanatory statement for the relevant meeting of shareholders which addresses the election or re-election of the Director, or by including in the notice a clear reference to the location on the Company's website, Annual Report or other document lodged with ASX where the information can be found.
Recommendation 1.3 A listed entity should have a written agreement with each director and senior executive setting out the terms of their appointment.	Yes	Non-executive Directors are provided a formal letter of appointment which sets out their duties and responsibilities, rights and remuneration entitlements. Senior executives are employed under individual service contracts which set out their terms of employment including details of their duties, responsibilities, rights and remuneration entitlements.
Recommendation 1.4 The company secretary of a listed entity should be accountable directly to the board, through the chair, on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the board.	Yes	The role of Company Secretary, as at 30 June 2022 was carried out by Graeme Smith. Mr Smith also fulfilled the Chief Financial Officers role and reported directly to the Executive Chairman. For any matter specific to company secretarial duties or relevant to the Board, the Company Secretary is accountable directly to the Chair of the Board.
Recommendation 1.5 A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a diversity policy;	Yes	The Board has adopted a Diversity Policy which sets out the Company's commitment to diversity and inclusion in the workplace. The Diversity Policy does not include a requirement for the Board to establish measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity. Given the small size of the Company workforce, the Board has determined that it is not currently necessary or practicable to establish measurable objectives in this area. As the size and the scale of the Company grows the Board will set and aim to achieve gender diversity objectives as Director and senior executive positions become vacant and accordance with that process during or in respect of that period.		No performance evaluation review with respect to the Board, its committees or the individual Directors was undertaken during the year.

Recommendation 1.7 A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a process for evaluating the performance of its senior executives at least once every reporting period; and disclose for each reporting period whether a performance evaluation has been undertaken in accordance with that process during or in respect of that period.	No	Senior executives are subject to annual performance evaluations carried out by the Board. The assessments are conducted by the Remuneration Committee. Due to the small number of executives the performance review was conducted on an informal basis. Details on key management personnel remuneration are contained in the Remuneration Report section of the Directors' Report in the Company's 2022 Annual Report.

Principle 2 – Structure the board to be effective and add value
Recommendation 2.1 The Board of a listed entity should: (a) have a nomination committee which: (i) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and (ii) is chaired by an independent director, and disclose: (iii) the charter of the committee; (iv) the members of the committee; and	Yes	At the end of the financial year, the Board had five Directors comprising of the Executive Chairman, and four Non-executive Directors, which are both currently independent. The Directors of Avenira during the financial year are listed with a brief description of their qualifications, appointment date, experience and special responsibilities are listed on the Company's website as well as in the Company's 2022 Annual Report. In July 2021, 2 additional directors (Roger Harris and Dr Geoffrey Xue) joined the Board The Board has established a Nomination Committee in conjunction with the Remuneration Committee. It is comprised of the following members: <table border="1" style="margin-left: auto; margin-right: auto;"> <thead> <tr> <th style="background-color: #cccccc;">Director</th> <th style="background-color: #cccccc;">Executive Status</th> <th style="background-color: #cccccc;">Independence Status</th> </tr> </thead> <tbody> <tr> <td>Kevin Dundo – Chair</td> <td>Non-executive Director</td> <td>Yes</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Winnie Lai Hadad</td> <td>Non-executive Director</td> <td>Yes</td> </tr> </tbody> </table>	Director	Executive Status	Independence Status	Kevin Dundo – Chair	Non-executive Director	Yes	Winnie Lai Hadad	Non-executive Director	Yes

These include Board renewal, succession planning, induction and evaluation. Details on the number of meetings held throughout the year and attendance at those meetings can be found in the Director’s Report section of the Company’s 2022 Annual Report. The Remuneration and Nomination Committee’s Charter is available on the Company’s website.
Recommendation 2.2 A listed entity should have and disclose a board skills matrix setting out the mix of skills and diversity that the board currently has or is looking to achieve in its membership.	Yes	The Board considers that there is currently an appropriate mix of skills, diversity and experience on the Board, taking into account the size of the Company, the stage of its development and the nature of its operations. The Company seeks to maintain a Board of Directors with a broad range of financial, industry and other relevant skills, experience and knowledge. The Board has developed a matrix to consider the appropriate mix of skills, experience, expertise and diversity across its current membership and to assist in identifying what may be required of candidates in the event a new director is required. Collectively, the Board has an extensive range of commercial skills and other relevant experience which are vital for the effective management of the business. Board members, including some who are also directors of other ASX-listed companies, together have a combination of experience in the following business areas: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • merger and acquisition transactions; • corporate governance and risk; • human resources; • investor relations; • public capital markets; • corporate strategy • phosphate and phosphate marketing; • leadership; • accounting and finance; • health and safety; • mineral exploration and geology; • relevant geographic experience; • mineral project development; and • mining operations and production.

Principle 7 – Recognise and manage risk
Recommendation 7.1 The board of a listed entity should: (a) have a committee or committees to oversee risk, each of which: (i) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and (ii) is chaired by an independent director, and disclose: (iii) the charter of the committee; (iv) the members of the committee; and (v) as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or (b) if it does not have a risk committee or committees that satisfy paragraph (a) above, disclose that fact and the processes it employs for overseeing the entity's risk management framework.	No	The Board has not set up a separate risk management committee and approaches risk on a full Board basis. The Board as a whole assess: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • the adequacy of the Company's processes for managing risk; • any incident involving fraud or other breakdown of the Company's internal controls; and • the Company's insurance program having regard to the Company's insurable risks associated with its business. The Company is committed to the identification, monitoring and management of material business risks of its activities. The Company has a Risk Management Policy which can be found on Avenira website under Corporate Governance. The Board is responsible for overseeing and approving risk management strategy and policies, whilst management is responsible for internal compliance and internal control. Management provides specific recommendations to the Board regarding the existence and status of business risks. (a) The Company is in the process of establishing a risk register that will be maintained by management on an ongoing basis That is, matters typically dealt with by a risk committee are dealt with by the full Board.
Recommendation 7.2	Partially	The Board oversees the Company's management of risks and receives reports from management at regular intervals. The Board does not receive a formal report from management on whether the Company's material business risks are being managed

The board or a committee of the board should: (a) review the entity's risk management framework at least annually to satisfy itself that it continues to be sound and that the entity is operating with due regard to the risk appetite set by the board; and (b) disclose, in relation to each reporting period, whether such a review has taken place.		effectively as its current risk management reporting process is sufficient for the Company's current stage of development. Key risk areas are a standing agenda item at Board meetings for discussion as required. There was no formal review of the Company's risk management framework during the financial year.
Recommendation 7.3 A listed entity should disclose: (a) if it has an internal audit function, how the function is structured and what role it performs; or (b) if it does not have an internal audit function, that fact and the processes it employs for evaluating and continually improving the effectiveness of its governance, risk management and internal control processes.	No	The Company does not have a dedicated internal audit function. The Board considers this is appropriate, due to its size and stage of development of Avenira operations. The Board and Audit Committee regularly discusses the appropriateness of controls with the external auditor and if considered necessary would initiate an audit of a particular function
Recommendation 7.4 A listed entity should disclose whether it has any material exposure to environmental or social risks and,	Yes	Environmental: The Company is subject to, and responsible for, ensuring compliance with various regulations, licenses, approvals and standards so that its activities do not cause unauthorised environmental harm. Through its ongoing management of environmental activities, the Company has been able to operate in an environmentally sustainable and responsible manner.
